Petition Process

In order to request the substitution of a course for AC credit, students must submit (1) the student petition form, (2) a letter from the student describing how the course meets the UC Berkeley AC requirement (the student may also submit a letter from the instructor of the course that describes in greater detail how the course meets the American Cultures requirement), and (3) a copy of the course syllabus from the semester in which you took the course.

1. Make sure that all the blanks have been filled in on the student petition form.
2. The letter from the student must explain how the course fulfills the AC requirement:
 - a. “Does the course address theoretical and analytical issues relevant to understanding race, culture, and ethnicity?” How?
 - b. “Is the course integrative and comparative within the larger context of American society, history, culture, economy, or environment?” How?
 - c. “Does the course take substantial account of groups drawn from at least three of the following: African Americans, indigenous peoples of the United States, Asian Americans, Chicanos/Latinos, and European Americans?” How is each group incorporated into the course?

It is the policy of the AC Subcommittee not to approve petitions that fail to address all three of these areas.

These questions are part of the AC Course Approval Guidelines, which can be found online at <http://academic-senate.berkeley.edu/committees/amcult>.

3. The course syllabus must include:
 - a. A detailed course description;
 - b. Detailed lecture and discussion topics;
 - c. A complete list and description of required assignments; and
 - d. A course reading list.

If any of these items are missing from the official course syllabus, students are expected to attach them themselves.

4. Petitions that the AC Subcommittee recommends for approval will be reviewed by the Committee on Courses of Instruction, which has final approval authority. Please see the AC Subcommittee’s website for more details on the petition process: <http://academic-senate.berkeley.edu/committees/amcult>.
