

HISTORY OF THE CLARK KERR AWARD

In 1968, the Berkeley Division of the Academic Senate created the Clark Kerr Award as a tribute to the leadership and legacy of President Emeritus Kerr.

The Clark Kerr Award recognizes an individual who has made an extraordinary and distinguished contribution to the advancement of higher education. Past recipients have come from inside and outside the Berkeley community, including former California Governor and Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, and past Chancellors Ira Michael Heyman and Chang-Lin Tien.

1968	CLARK KERR	1992	Thomas E. Everhart
1969	J. E. Wallace Sterling		Derek Bok
1970	Sir Eric Ashby		Henry Rosovsky
1971	Roger W. Heyns	1993	Ira Michael Heyman
1972	Earl Warren	1994	Daniel E. Koshland Jr.
1973	Theodore M. Hesburgh	1995	Frank H. T. Rhodes
1974	John W. Gardner	1996	Sanford H. Kadish
1976	Elinor Haas Heller		Philip Selznick
1977	James B. Conant	1997	Chang-Lin Tien
1979	Choh-Ming Li	1998	Yuan T. Lee
1980	Joel H. Hildebrand	2000	Herbert F. York
1981	Richard W. Lyman	2002	John Hope Franklin
1982	Lynn White Jr.	2004	Lee C. Bollinger
1983	David Riesman	2005	Jack W. Peltason
1984	Sanford S. Elberg	2006	Nannerl O. Keohane
1985	Lord Noel Gilroy Annan	2007	Karl S. Pister
1986	Glenn T. Seaborg	2008	Harold T. Shapiro
1987	Robert E. Marshak	2009	Charles E. Young
1988	Morrough P. O'Brien	2010	William G. Bowen
	Lincoln Constance	2012	Robert M. Berdahl
	Ewald T. Grether		Marian C. Diamond
	Harry R. Wellman	2013	Ricardo Romo
1989	J. William Fulbright	2014	Marye Anne Fox
1990	Edmund G. Brown Sr.	2015	Hanna Holborn Gray
1991	Robert J. Brentano	2016	George W. Breslauer
	Kenneth S. Pitzer		