E. A. DICKSON EMERITI PROFESSORSHIP - CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Committee on Faculty Awards is pleased to announce its call for nominations for the 2019-20 Dickson Emeriti Professorship.

DEADLINE: The deadline for submission of nominations is January 14, 2019.

BACKGROUND AND DESCRIPTION
The Edward A. Dickson Emeriti Professorship is supported by an endowment from Edward A. Dickson, a former Regent of the University. The Professorship is awarded annually to an emeritus faculty member who has an outstanding record of post-retirement contributions in any of the following areas: teaching, research, and public or University service. In accordance with the intent of the donor, funding for any of the above areas will be supported. An award of $10,000 will be made to the Emeriti Professor for the up-coming fiscal year. The money may be used as a salary stipend or to provide for support activities as described in an accompanying budget proposal. The highest priority will be for support of activities that benefit the campus and for which funding is not available from other sources.

NOMINATION:
Each Department may submit one nomination for this Professorship. The Department Chair should prepare a letter of submission of no more than four pages, summarizing the post-retirement activities of the candidate and the significance of these activities for the campus community. Only post-retirement activities will be considered in the selection of the nominee. The future activities of the nominee for the year in which they would hold the Emeriti Professorship should be described in detail, and include a budget for allocation of the professorship funds. Supporting letters and c.v. are not requested.

We are also requesting nominations for this professorship from the UC Berkeley Emeriti Association.

AWARD
The Committee on Faculty Awards of the Berkeley Division will review all nominations and make a recommendation for appointment to the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost for the upcoming fiscal year.
Deadline for submission: January 14, 2019

Department chairs should submit their nominations by e-mail to acad_sen@berkeley.edu
